

Anne Ruwet

Biography

Anne L. Ruwet was reelected in November 2004 as a member of the Connecticut House of Representatives from the 65th Assembly District in Torrington. She is serving her second term in the state legislature. Rep. Ruwet previously served as a member of the Torrington City Council.

She currently serves as a member of the legislature's Finance, Revenue and Bonding Committee, Higher Education and Employment Advancement Committee, and as ranking member of the Select Committee on Children.

She has been an advocate for individuals with disabilities for more than twenty-five years, and has been the Executive Director of Central Connecticut Arc since 1994. Central Connecticut Arc is an association of people founded in 1952 as a not-for-profit organization. It provides an array of services within the community, which offer opportunities for independence and personal growth for people with mental retardation and other needs.

She is a member of the After School Alliance along with Rep. Betty Boukus. She has received the Legislator of the Year Award from the Connecticut YMCA. She is a board member of the Northwest Arts Council and also a member of the Northwest Chamber of Commerce. She remains an active member for 12 years of the Rotary Club.
